AHOY!

You are about to embark on a wonderful adventure, an evening in the country's most unique arena!

You may hold on to your seats with suspense and laugh and cry, and thoroughly enjoy yourselves because that's exactly the way the TOWNDOCK THEATRE was planned for you.

And welcome to Port Washington named for the father of our country and to Manhasset Bay with the world's most beautiful craft at anchor. The years may come and the years may go, yet Port Washington keeps her quaint charm and beauty.

A landmark of Port Washington is LOUIE'S SHORE RESTAURANT next door to the Towndock Theater. Here on the spacious patio, you may dine on succulent lobster or roast beef or a hundred and one other delicacies prepared to the taste of an ocean liner's captain.

In soft candlelight, diners may watch the sailboats come in from the races in a glorious sunset. Through the seasons in Port Washington, summer, winter, fall and spring, LOUIES has been serving the finest food for forty years!

The producers of the TOWNDOCK THEATER, Ruth and Philip Hunter, actors, authors and radio commentators, are veterans of the stage. They have been in every field of the entertainment world from Chautauqua, Stock and Vaudeville, to acting in original casts of the most famous plays on Broadway. You, along with millions of others, heard them for seven years on their own radio program, "LET'S GO" on Station WOR, New York.

Acting is the most rewarding of the arts, say the Hunters, because it embraces all the others. The Towndock Theater now in its 4th successful season, is proud to have provided a showcase for outstanding arena theater directors, to have produced original music, sold "first" paintings and to have presented brand new plays. Here you may witness the performance of an actor who has trod the boards for many years as well as that of a remarkable new actor. All of this adds up to making you the explorer!
